

Container Drills Including Distracters

Containers are the first thing we learn in Scent work but also the most problematic for many teams. If you would like to improve your handling of containers and have fun this class is for you. Various drills will be used to help handlers work through problem areas common to containers.

Teams should be experienced with odor

Date: October 18, 2019 9am - 3pm,

Location: Citrus County Dog Training Center
Shamrock Industrial Park
6843 N. Citrus Ave, Unit C
Crystal River, FL 34428.

Cost: $75.

I expect this class to fill quickly so $20 audit spots will be available.

Register at <http://ccdoggtraining.com>. Complete forms and mail with class fee to Angela McMurray, 1162 N. Conant Ave, Crystal River 34429

Beth Jernigan and her Norfolk Terrier 'Schooner' began competing in Nose Work events 5 years ago. Beth has participated in numerous seminars as well as attending week long Nose Work camps hosted by the NACSW. Schooner has multiple titles in NACSW, UKC and AKC scent work. Beth believes that Scent work is a way to build confidence in every dog and have fun at the same time.

Beth can be reached for questions or comments at ejernigan1960@gmail.com